01 Professional profile

Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) with a research focus on leadership skills development, and more than two decades of blue-chip experience across FMCG operations, global supply chains, and top-tier management consulting (Accenture, Pcubed London — Aston Martin, Merrill Lynch / Bank of America, VISA, RBS).

Founder & Group CEO of Big Five Group Africa (bigfivegroup.africa) — building an integrated Feed · Educate · Empower ecosystem: Big Five Foods™ (fortified nutrition and institutional programmes), Super-Cube® leadership development, and SupplierAdvisor® ethical digital commerce.

Creator of the Super-Cube® leadership model — empirically validated in an African FMCG business-network (UKZN doctoral research; peer-reviewed in SAJEMS). Measured average leadership-capacity gains of +32.2% across six human-centric constructs.

Track record of turning around and scaling operations: ±R140m net-profit improvement at Imana Foods; R17.5m annualised cost-reduction programme at Petrow; multi-country cold-chain leadership at Merlog; £500m product-creation system work at Aston Martin.

Committed to ESG / SDG outcomes — accelerating leadership capability in supply chains to improve society, business, and the natural environment.
